

Come and Sing!

Join North Yorkshire Chorus for a WORKSHOP on

Handel's Messiah

led by renowned conductor

SIMON WRIGHT

(Conductor of Leeds Festival Chorus and York Guildhall Orchestra)

Saturday 10 March 2018 at All Saints Church, Northallerton

Accompanist

GREG SMITH

(North Yorkshire Chorus Principal Conductor)

Programme

10.15 onwards	Registration and refreshments
11.00-1.00	Session 1
1.00-2.00	Lunch (available in town or bring a packed lunch)
2.00-3.30	Session 2
3.30-4.00	Refreshment break
4.00-5.00	Performance of choruses from Messiah

Cost: £15 including refreshments, payable on the day, but please book a place by emailing events@northyorkshirechorus.org.uk (or phone 01609 761059) giving your name and voice (soprano, alto, tenor, bass).

Please bring your own score, but if you need to borrow one, indicate that when you book as we have some available.

Non-singers are welcome to attend the performance, £5 on the door.

As a conductor Simon Wright has earned universal respect and acclaim for his interpretations of wide-ranging and challenging orchestral and choral repertoire. Throughout his professional career, which has also embraced roles as organist, accompanist, arranger and teacher, he has become established as a musician of enormous integrity, winning the admiration of musicians, audiences and critics alike.